

Busy Carpark – NZ Short Course Swimming Championships – Monday 19th to Saturday 24th August

- AUT Millennium is hosting the NZ Short Course champs next week – we expect the carpark and surrounding area to be very busy.
- We will have staff on hand to assist in the carpark – ensuring that Rangitoto College students can access their carparks.
- As part of our traffic management plan, we will be restricting vehicle access to the main facility roundabout therefore next week parents will not be able to collect their children from the turn-around bay or disability carparks. Staff will be directing traffic away from this area from 2:15pm each afternoon.

Rangitoto College Fashion Show is on the 24th August!

Tickets on sale now from the finance office. Adults $15, Students $10 and $5 for a Limited edition Goodie bag. Get in quick before they sell out!

Year 13 - Careers Drop-in sessions

When: Thursday 15th August @ Lunchtime

What: Any Questions? -An opportunity to ask about any career or Uni related ???

Where: A1 Careers Hub

MITO Connect events are a great opportunity for employers who are looking to hire and students who are job ready and looking to enter the automotive, road transport or quarry industries.

The events are designed in a mini two-way interview style with each student and employer meeting for five minutes. Employers have the opportunity to meet potential candidates and students find out more about the vacancies directly from employers, and to see if they are the right fit.

The events will run in the evening from 5:30pm - 7:30pm. This allows students to come with their parents/guardians and hear from employers to find out what it would be like to work there.

However, spaces are limited, so please click on the link below to register your interest and you will be advised if you are successful. Registration for this event closes on Friday 9th August.
