AmnesTEA for Amnesty International!

Payments ($15 each) are taking place in the Auditorium foyer at lunchtime this week- THURS and FRI

We're excited to invite you to Amnesty's first school event of the year—AmnesTEA!

Enjoy a cozy and relaxed atmosphere with friends while supporting a great cause. At AmnesTEA, you can paint candles, enjoy pizza and drinks, and help fundraise for Amnesty International—all included in the $15 entry fee. This event will take place on Week 9 Friday, from 4:00 PM - 6:00 PM in the RangiCentre. Bring along some cash as we will have some lolly bags for sale.

Remember, in order to get Amnesty on your school profile, you must attend 2 events and write 3 letters.

Maths Help (A20)

Are you struggling with math? Do you feel lost when reading a question? Does opening your math book make you feel hopeless? Does solving math problems make you want to sob uncontrollably? Join us in Room A20 every Friday lunch for guidance, support, and a fun approach to problem-solving! Our sessions are mainly aimed at juniors, but seniors are also welcome to join if you need help. Classroom Code: ulfulog

For further questions, email: 182029@cloud.rangitoto.school.nz (Gavin) or 170200@cloud.rangitoto.school.nz (Sarah)

Religious Studies Scholarship lunch Wednesdays in C5.

The topic this year is Diversity Inclusion and Equity in the context of religion.

You don't need to be religious to study religion or do well on the assessment. Over 20% of students who sat last year gained scholarship.

The plan is to have fun and make friends as we read, think, write, and chat about the difficult questions in this space DEI in Religion.
